Whoever recites a letter from the Book of Allah, he will be credited with a good deed, and a good deed gets a ten-fold reward. I do not say that Alif-Lam-Mim is one letter, but Alif is a letter, Lam is a letter and Mim is a letter.

[\[Hadith | At- Tirmidhi\]](#)

Dīn-I-Islām is a comprehensive way of life. The term dīn has no equivalent in English or any other European languages. However, it is normally translated as religion. Therefore, it should be taken into consideration that the concept of religion in western weltanschauung is totally different from Islamic world- view. The latter is wider in its cope, it does not limit itself to the spiritual or ritual aspect alone but it covers the entire human endeavours. The major source of everything in Islām is the Holy Qur"ān and the Sunnah which means saying and practice of the Prophet Muhammad (s.a.w), which he proclaimed in his last sermon at the Mount „Arafat that he left two things for the Ummah (Qur"ān and Sunnah). He emphasized that if the Ummah attached to both, they will never go astray (Haykal, 2008).

Connecting with the Qur'an brings a Muslim closer to the Creator, which is an incredible blessing in this life, and will be a source of big reward in the hereafter.

Verses or Surah's of the Quran are an essential part of Muslim prayer. Other than prayers, many Muslims recite parts of the Quran daily to refresh their spirits and iman (belief). It is a routine for Muslims worldwide to recite Quran either in the original text (Arabic) or translated text. Moreover, Muslims recite the Quran at every important occasion or event such as funerals, pray for success, get rid of life difficulties, etc. This way Quran holds high importance in the lives of Muslims.
